David H. Koch

David H. Koch is Executive Vice President and a board member of Koch Industries, Inc., which owns a diverse group of companies with 70,000 employees and a presence in nearly sixty countries. He is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in chemical engineering. In addition to his business activities, Mr. Koch serves on more than twenty non-profit boards, and in 2004 he received a presidential appointment to the National Cancer Advisory Board of the National Cancer Institute. He is also one of the nation's preeminent philanthropists, having personally contributed more than $500 million to a wide range of organizations, with a particular emphasis on cancer research and the arts and culture.

Peter T. Scardino, MD

Peter T. Scardino is Chairman of the Department of Surgery at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and the inaugural incumbent of the David H. Koch Chair. A prominent urologic surgeon and internationally recognized authority on prostate cancer, he joined the faculty at Memorial Sloan-Kettering in 1998 following nearly two decades at Baylor College of Medicine. He maintains a particular interest in the prognosis and early detection of prostate cancer, and he and his colleagues are pioneers in the use of statistical models known as “nomograms.” In addition, Dr. Scardino is the author of hundreds of medical articles and textbooks. His recent publications include Dr. Peter Scardino's Prostate Book, a guidebook for men with prostate diseases.
